From the East

Brethren,

Hello my Brothers! I hope you all had a wonderful holiday and are looking forward to an exciting and safe 2020. First and foremost, I want to thank you for your faith and support in allowing me to sit in the East. This is a tremendous honor and responsibility that I will not take lightly. I am eternally grateful for the help and counsel of our PMs, officers and Sandy Valley brethren in the years and months leading up to 2020. Thank you all for everything you have done.

2020 is going to be an exciting year for Sandy Valley. The Officers and I have discussed many new opportunities for the Lodge and I am excited to champion these opportunities for our Brothers to dwell together in unity.

For my brothers, I am asking for assistance in a challenge we as Masons are all facing. It is no secret that every year, the number of Brothers in our fraternity is shrinking. In years past, we have welcomed many Brothers that have become active and engaged in our Lodge. Today, it is critical, now more than ever, to welcome and receive our new candidates and show them why being a Brother can give them a lifetime of joy. I am asking each and every one of you to take an active role in welcoming our candidates and new Brothers... embrace the next generation, for they are going to make us proud and carry on our fraternity for years to come.

I look forward to seeing you all at our first stated meeting on Saturday, Jan 4th in Sandy Valley. Please have a safe new year's celebration and I will see you all soon!

Fraternally from the West,

David Sims

From the West

My Brothers,

I am honored to have been elected to this position by my Brothers and I will do my best to exceed your expectations.

We have new Brothers on the line and with this comes fresh eyes and ideas on how best to recruit new members, re-establish ourselves within the community, and elevate YOUR Lodge experience. Worshipful Dave and the Officers have, and will continue to, discuss ways to best accomplish all of these improvements. Eventually, all of these ideas will be captured and memorialized in a strategic lodge document with the emphasis of looking forward while honoring our past.

I see big things on our horizon and solicit any and all ideas from you...after all, it is YOUR Lodge! I look forward to our first Stated Communication.

Fraternally from the West,

Al Navarro II

From the South

Brothers,

First and foremost, I would like to thank the brethren of Sandy Valley #57 for electing me your Junior Warden for calendar year 2020. As it is my honor to superintend during the time of ease and refreshment. Since we are beginning what I hope to be our second historical period of Roaring 20s, I feel challenged to “raise the bar” on our meals and refreshment during lodge, so the stewards (Charles & Brett) and I are going to do our very best to enhance our fellowship through food and beverage. It is our goal to establish a meal plan and then solicit support across the lodge to provide potluck-style dishes to feed ourselves and our growing list of monthly guests. (See Announcement Section)

As we look forward to a new decade, we have an opportunity to rekindle the spirit and values that have defined our fraternity since the building of the Temple and the rise of speculative Freemasonry over 1000 years ago. In Ohio, our bothers have designated 2020: A Year of Stepping into the Light. It requires a willingness and eagerness to put our Masonic values into practice. To succeed all brothers should:

Make Masons – A quality lodge program coupled with educational opportunities helps promote membership, and the authority to make Masons is the first right granted to lodges in their charters. The strongest lodges share two common factors: they are involved in their community and they break bread together. Every Mason contributes to the strength of the brotherhood by living their charter in and out of the lodge room. Ask yourself, is your Lodge what you want it to be?

Care for Brethren, Widows, and Orphans – Reaching out every member every year and implementing a care program for our widows and orphans should be a lodge standard of excellence. Something as simple as sending a fruit basket or inviting a widow in your lodge to an awards dinner can remind them that they are and will always be a valued part of our community.

Support the Grand Lodge, Sister Lodges and Appendant Bodies – Participate in masonic organizations, events, ceremonies, and rituals. Contribute time and resources to Masonic-related charities. Always look for ways to serve. As servant leaders, we can strengthen our communities through our visible efforts within and outside our organizations.

24 Members and 2 First-time Visitors were present at the opening of the Lodge. Worshipful called the Lodge to order on the First Degree at 9 am. Flag presented West of the Altar. Past Masters were asked to introduce themselves: John Pennington, Al Opegard, Wilton (Swannie) Swensen, Wade Schneiderman, Troy Schneiderman, George Odell, Kenneth O'Neill, Dave White, Mark Tavares, Frank Samontos, and Michael Kurcab. 50-year Masons were asked to rise and introduce themselves: George Odell and John Pennington. First-time Visitors David Edwards and Frank Samontos were escorted West of the alter for introduction as First-time Vistors.

Minutes from the November 2nd were approved with corrections. Investigation committee was formed for petitions received from Utah consisting of Michael Kurcab, Al Navarro II, and Troy Schneiderman. Brother Charles Mallard gave a very satisfactory proficiency for the F.C. degree.

Sickness and Distress.

Brother Al Navarro II's sister is Terminal with Lupus and his Ex-wife is still battling cancer.

Brother Chris Klineburger is still recovering at home now.

Sunshine. None

Communications from Grand Lodge were read along with other Lodges. A balloting was done on Brother David Edwards of UT for membership, with no issue.

Brother Williams gave a great education to the Lodge. The C.D. committee gave a report that they have found a safe way to gain a higher yield for the Lodge C.D. to be transferred to a Savings account, Lodge voted to follow the committee's recommendations.

The S.W. explained what was decided from Grand Lodge. Grand Lodge for 2020 was announced to be held on Nov 9th and 10th at The Orleans Hotel. Our GMOV was announced to be on Sept 5th of this year which conflicts with our bylaws as will are to be dark due to Holiday weekend.

Bills to be sent to Grand Lodge for dues Cards.

Treasures Report: $6,733 in our C.D.; Checking $10,022.89.

Elections of the incoming Officers was held after a teller committee was formed. It was proposed that $100.00 be given to the Outgoing Master to go towards his Past Masters Apron. Passed by the Lodge.

Lodge closed 12:30 in due order.

The Duties of Officers of the Lodge

December 2019

Sandy Valley #57 Monthly Masonic Education Lecture

Researched & Prepared By: R. "Montana" Williams, Senior Deacon, Lodge Historian, Master Mason, 32°, Sir Knight, Noble Shriner

Worshipful Master Duties:

His Jewel is the Square, which is a stonemason's tool to ascertain true and correct angles of the cut and smoothed stone...thus his Jewel symbolizes virtue. The Worshipful Master of a Masonic Lodge is the highest ranking of all Lodge Officers which a Lodge may elect.

The Worshipful Master sits in the East of the Lodge room (symbolic of the Rising Sun in the East) and directs all of the business of the Lodge. Note: Even if the building faces a different direction, the Master is said to be "in the East". He also presides over ritual and ceremonies.

His position is similar to a President of any other organization. As Master, his word is final over any and all actions pertaining to his Lodge.

It is his duty to: "Set the Craft to work and give them wholesome instruction for their labor".

While the Worshipful Master's rank is highest of all members, his Lodge Officer Duties are the easiest to remember. The Worshipful Master is responsible for every single thing within his lodge during his year as Master. He is ultimately responsible for every other lodge officer and their duties, every lodge committee, ritual and degree work, Masonic education, social functions, fundraisers, District and Grand Lodge liaison, Trestle Board communication, etc.

All eyes are upon the Master. If lodge functions go smoothly, it is the Master who takes the credit. If lodge functions go awry, it is the Master who bears the blame. Therefore, the Master wears many hats.

It is his duty to preside over business meetings, the conferral of degrees, and delegation of duties to all other Lodge Officers. While Freemasons call the Master, "Worshipful Master", they do not, as some people may erroneously believe, actually worship him. "Worshipful" is an honorary title which shows respect for his position. In France, the word "Worshipful" is replaced with the word "Venerable".

It is no different than respecting the office of our President of the United States. He would be addressed, formally, as "Mr. President" rather than by his first name. Likewise, if you go before a judge, you would address him as "Your Honor", rather than by his first name, as a measure of respect that you hold for his office.

Senior Warden Duties:

His Jewel is the Level...symbolizing that all Masons meet on the level, without regard to social, political or religious beliefs or status.

The Senior Warden of a Masonic Lodge is the second in command within the Lodge Officers. In the absence of the Worshipful Master, the Senior Warden assumes the Worshipful Master's duties. The Senior Warden of a Masonic Lodge sits in the West (symbolic of the setting sun) and assists the Worshipful Master in opening and closing the Lodge.

The Senior Warden is in charge of the Lodge when it is at labor. His position is similar to a Vice-President of any organization.

His ancient duties were to pay the Craft (the members of the guild) their wages and to handle disputes among the workers. It is his duty to support the Master and to prepare himself for that office during the following year.

Junior Warden Duties:

His Jewel of Office is the Plumb,...which is a stonemason's instrument used for ascertaining the alignment of a vertical surface.

It symbolizes upright behavior among Masons. The Junior Warden of a Masonic Lodge is the third in command of the Lodge. The Junior Warden sits in the South (symbolic of the position of the sun at midday) and is responsible for the Brethren while the Lodge is at ease or refreshment.

His position is similar to a Second Vice-President. The Junior Warden, too, may open the lodge if the Master is unable to attend the meeting.

It is the Junior Warden's duty to arrange meals for the lodge, and, typically, the 2 Stewards act as his assistants in this responsibility.

Symbolically, it is also his duty to make certain that the members do not convert their refreshment into intemperance or excess. This is a holdover from earlier days, which still remains as part of the Junior Warden's job description, even though in most U.S. jurisdictions, alcohol is barred from the lodge.

Which Officers Can Open the Lodge? The Master, the Senior Warden, the Junior Warden or a Past Master.

Senior Deacon Duties:

His Jewel is the Square and Compass with the Sun in the middle. The sun signifies that his position is on the lower level, to the right of the Worshipful Master in the east.

His duty is as messenger of the Worshipful Master; hence he does a lot of walking. The Senior Deacon of a Masonic Lodge is an assistant officer of the Lodge. The Senior Deacon's principle roles are to welcome and escort both visitors and candidates into the lodge and introduce distinguished visitors.

It is his duty to assist the Worshipful Master and carry orders between the Worshipful Master and the Senior Warden. During degree rituals, he guides the new candidate and conducts him around the lodge room.

During the opening and closing ceremonies, the Senior Deacon opens the Holy Scriptures to the correct passage of the degree being worked and closes it after the lodge is adjourned. He also lights and extinguishes the candles at the altar.

In some lodges, he carries the ballot box around the lodge when new members are being voted upon.

The Senior Deacon's position is similar to a Manager. The Senior Deacon (and the Junior Deacon) both carry long staffs (or rods), because as messengers of the Worshipful Master, the staffs are symbolic of the caduceus (or wand) that the Roman winged god and messenger Mercury carried during their duties. Atop the rods are the jewels of their offices.

Junior Deacon Duties:

Like his senior counterpart, the Senior Deacon, the Jewel of his office is the Square and Compass, however the Junior Deacon's Square and Compass has a moon in the center (rather than a sun), which signifies that he is in the West.

The Junior Deacon of a Masonic Lodge is an assistant officer of the Lodge. He sits to the lower right of the Senior Warden. The Junior Deacon's principle roles are to assist the Senior Warden by carrying messages from the Senior Warden in the West to the Junior Warden in the South and to guard the inner door of the Lodge.

It is his duty to ascertain at all times whether the Tiler is guarding the door and only allowing visitors to enter after they have been properly vouched for. The Junior Deacon and the Tiler communicate with each other by knocking on the door (the Tiler from the outside...and the Junior Deacon from the inside).

Some jurisdictions split this position into 2 positions...that of the Junior Deacon and the Inner Guard.

The Junior Warden's position is like a Manager.

Senior Steward Duties:

His Jewel is the Cornucopia, which is an exact duplicate of the Junior Steward's Cornucopia. The Cornucopia signifies the "Horn of Plenty". It is a goat horn filled with the fresh fruits and vegetables to denote the "fruits of your labors" and represents a job well done.

The Senior Steward of a Masonic Lodge is an appointed officer of the Lodge.

The Senior Steward is tasked to understudy the Junior Deacon's position and fill in for the Junior Deacon when absent.

The Junior Deacon's principle role is to prepare the candidates during ritual and escort them to the lodge room and assist the Senior Deacon. In their entry Officer positions, both the Senior and Junior Stewards typically handle kitchen duties and wait staff for the members.

The Senior Steward's position is like that of a Supervisor.

Junior Steward Duties:

His Jewel is the Cornucopia, which is an exact duplicate to the Senior Steward's Cornucopia. The Cornucopia signifies the "Horn of Plenty".

It is a goat horn filled with the "fruits of your labors" and represents a job well done.

The Junior Steward of a Masonic Lodge is an appointed officer of the Lodge.

The Junior Steward is tasked to understudy the Senior Steward position and fill in for the Senior Steward in his absence. The Junior Steward's principle role is to assist the Senior Steward and the Senior Deacon in the preparation of the Candidates.

Both the Senior and Junior Stewards carry rods, atop which are the jewels of their offices. The rods represent England's Lord High Steward's rod in the House of Lords.

The Junior Steward position is like that of a Supervisor.

The aforementioned officer positions are part of the Progressive Line

Officer Positions that are NOT part of the Progressive Line

Treasurer Duties:

His Jewel is a Pair of Crossed Keys, signifying he is the Collector and Distributor of all Lodge Monies as he holds the keys to the cashbox. The Treasurer of a Masonic Lodge is the Chief Financial Officer of the Lodge. He sits to the right of the Master and behind the Senior Deacon.

The Treasurer is responsible for all financial transactions. He receives all money, pays all debts by order of the Worshipful Master with the consent of the lodge and renders a report when requested.

The treasurer does not need to be in possession of an accounting degree, however experience with bookkeeping and accounting is an asset.

Financial bookkeeping transactions may be performed either by hand or using accounting software.

Secretary - Lodge Officer Duties:

His Jewel is the Crossed Quill Pens. The Secretary is the Lodge's Recorder. The Secretary's Lodge Officer Duties require a high degree of lodge experience, Masonic knowledge, diplomacy and, above all, detailed paperwork skills. The Lodge Secretary is the backbone of any Masonic Lodge and he holds a position of great responsibility. He sits to the left of the Master.

His duties require him to handle all correspondence to the members, minutes of Lodge meetings, petitions of new candidates, continuous lodge member count, and many other administrative duties. He compiles an ongoing list of each new candidate and which degrees that candidate has undertaken. From his member list, he sends out the annual dues notices and receives dues payments.

He communicates with other Lodges and the Grand Lodge, types letters, retrieves the mail as well as handles many other details.

The Secretary's Lodge Officer duties are many, not the least of which is that he must be well versed in Grand Lodge By-Laws for his jurisdiction and his Lodge By-Laws. He keeps the list of Lodge members and helps the Master organize his meetings.

A very experienced member usually resides in this chair...many times he is a Past Master of the Lodge. While it is not a prerequisite, due to the number of hours that this position requires, most (not all) Lodge Secretaries are retired and therefore able to devote the many hours required which are necessary to this position.

The Secretary's position is similar to a corporate C.O.O., (Chief Operation Officer).

Marshal Duties:

His Jewel is the Crossed Batons. The Marshal is the Lodge's Conductor or Master of Ceremonies.

The Marshal of a Masonic Lodge is an appointed officer of the Lodge. The Marshal is in some jurisdictions the "Director of Ceremonies".

The Marshal's duties and principle role is the organization of processions and ensuring the correct precedence and etiquette in formal proceedings. It is his duty to formally conduct visitors into the lodge and introduce them to the members when the lodge is in session.

The Marshal's position is similar to that of a Supervisor.

Tiler Duties:

His Jewel is the Sword, by which he symbolically refuses entrance to anyone who is uninitiated in the Craft. The sword has no scabbard, as it is his symbolic duty to always have his sword drawn, ready for the defense of his post.

The Tiler (or Tyler) of a Masonic Lodge is an appointed officer of the Lodge and is sometimes known as the "Outer Guard". He sits outside the closed door of the lodge room, armed with a sword.

The Tiler's duties and principle role is to ensure that only those who are duly qualified are allowed to enter the Lodge Room. He guards against cowans and eavesdroppers. During the Middle Ages, a cowan was a man who built stone walls of poor quality. He was an uninitiated or non-apprenticed stonemason...a "jackleg", if you will.

While the Tiler is sometimes called upon to assist in the preparation of candidates, his chief duty is to (symbolically) keep unskilled workmen from overhearing the conversation within the Lodge Room.

After the lodge members are inside the Lodge Room, the door closes and it is the Tiler's duty to decide whether late arrivals may enter. It is also his duty to make sure that each visitor is "properly clothed", which means they must be wearing their Masonic apron.

To be fully and properly dressed before entrance into the Lodge Room, the visitor must be wearing their apron over the top (or on the outside) of their suit coat (never under their coat) and the apron strings must be fully tied before the Tiler will allow the visitor entrance. Some jurisdictions call this position the Outer Guard.

The Tiler's position is similar to that of a Supervisor.

Chaplain - Lodge Officer Duties:

His Jewel of office is an opened book, symbolizing the Volume of Sacred Law (the Christian Bible, Hebrew Torah or Tanach, the Muslim Qur'an, the Hindu Vedas or other Holy Books).

The Chaplain of a Masonic Lodge is an appointed officer of the Lodge. He sits to the left of the Master.

The Chaplain is the spiritual leader of the Lodge. While he may or may not be a real-world Minister, Priest, Rabbi or Imam,... in the lodge, the Chaplain is responsible for non-denominational prayers at both the opening and closing of meetings, during degree ritual ceremonies and before meals. Most Chaplains have no religious training and prayers are non-denominational.

The Chaplain's position is similar to that of a Supervisor.
